NOTIFICATION
The 27TH July, 2000

No. G.S.R.41/Haryana Ordinance 10/2000/S.26/2000. –In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with sub-section(2) of section 26 of the Haryana Local Area Development Tax Ordinance, 2000 (Haryana Ordinance No. 10 of 2000) and all other powers enabling him in this behalf and with reference to Haryana Government, Prohibition, Excise and Taxation Department, notification No. G.S.R.27/Haryana Ordinance 10/2000/S.26/2000, dated the 27th June, 2000, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following rules, namely: -

PART –I
Preliminary

|---------------------|---|
| Short title | 1. (1) These rules may be called the Haryana Local Area Development Tax Rules, 2000.
(2) They shall come into force on the date of their Publication in the official Gazette, |
| Definitions. | 2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires –
a) “Appropriate Government Treasury” means a treasury or sub-treasury of Government or a branch or subsidiary of the State Bank of India situated in the local area in which the importer concerned has his place of business or the head office in the State, if there are branches and where any amount is recovered or collected, the local area in the State in which the amount is recovered or collected;
b) “Circle” means a circle in the concerned district demarcated by Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner incharge of the district, subject to approval by the Commissioner, for the purpose of administration under the Ordinance;
c) “Form” means the form appended to these rules;
d) “Ordinance” means the Haryana Local Area Development Tax Ordinance, 2000 (Haryana Ordinance 10 of 2000);
e) “section” means the section of the Ordinance;
f) words and expressions used in these rules, but not defined shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Haryana General Sales Tax Act, 1973(20 of 1973), the Haryana General Sales Tax Rules, 1975 and the Ordinance. |

PART II
Registration

| Registration of importer [Sections 3(2) and 4]. | 3. (1) Every importer liable to get himself registered under section 4 read with sub section (2) of section 3 shall make an application for registration to the assessing authority of the circle in Form DT-1 within thirty days of becoming liable for registration or from the date of publication of these rules, whichever is later.
(2) Each application for registration shall be accompanied by a receipt from the appropriate Government Treasury or crossed demand draft or pay order in favour of the assessing authority for one hundred rupees and such additional sum as is required to cover the additional place of business at the rate of fifty rupees for each copy.
(3) The assessing authority on receiving the application, shall, if the importer is already registered under the Haryana General Sales Tax Act, 1973 (Haryana Act 20 of 1973), shall forthwith, and in case of any other importer, if he is satisfied after making such enquiry as he thinks necessary that the particulars contained in the application are correct and complete, register the importer and grant a registration certificate in Form DT-2 and also grant a copy of such registration for every place of business within the State, other than the head office within the State mentioned therein. Such registration shall be held by the importer subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and these rules and the restrictions and conditions specified in that certificate.
(4) When the assessing authority is not satisfied that the particulars contained in the application are correct and complete, he shall reject the application for reasons to be recorded in writing: |

Provided that such rejections shall not be made before giving the applicant, an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(5) registration certificate under sub-rule (3) shall be exhibited in a conspicuous place within the premises of each of business including the head office, if any, mentioned in the certificate.

(6) Every registered importer who discontinues or transfers his business or otherwise gets his registration certificate cancelled shall forthwith surrender to the assessing authority the certificate of registration and the copies thereof, if any, granted to him.

(7) Where the registration certificate granted under these rules is lost, destroyed, defaced or mutilated, a duplicate copy of the registration certificate may be granted by the assessing authority, if he is satisfied of such loss, destruction, defacement or mutilation on payment of a fee of five rupees.

Amendment
Section 26.

4. (1) Where the importer desires the registration certificate granted to him under these rules to be amended, he submit an application for this purpose to the assessing authority setting out the specific matters in respect of which, he desires such amendment and the reasons, therefore, together with the registration certificate granted to him and such authority may, if satisfied with the reasons given, make such amendment as he thinks necessary, in the registration certificate and the copies thereof, if any, granted to him:

Provided that the amendment so made shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Ordinance or these rules.

(2) The provisions of sub-rules (4), (5), (6) and (7) of rule 3 shall apply in relation to such amended certificate and copies thereof as they apply in relation to the original certificate and copies thereof.

Manner of furnishing of security
Section 8.

5.(1) The security to be furnished under the Ordinance may be furnished by the importer in the following manners, namely:-

- (a) by depositing as security in appropriate Government Treasury, the amount fixed by the said authority; or
- (b) by depositing security amount in the Post Office Saving Bank and pledging the pass book to and depositing it with the said authority; or
- (c) by furnishing to the said authority a guarantee from a Scheduled Bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, agreeing to pay the State Government, on demand, the amount of security fixed by the said authority; or
- (d) by furnishing personal bond with solvent surety for the amount of security to the satisfaction of the said authority in Form DT-8 on a non-judicial paper of the appropriate value; or
- (e) by purchasing the Central Government bonds or securities equivalent to the security amount and pledging them to and depositing them with the said authority.

(2) The security furnished may, in the event of default of any tax, interest or penalty due, be adjusted towards such tax, interest or penalty. The assessing authority may in any case where such adjustment has been made, demand fresh security or additional security to make up the amount adjusted towards the tax:

Provided that no action under this sub-rule shall be taken unless the importer affected has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such action.

PART-III

Returns, assessments and tax payments

Statements and returns to be submitted by the Head Office Section 26.

6 (1) In the case of an importer having more than one place of business in the State, the aggregate turnover of all such places of business shall be taken as the turnover of the business.

(2) All statements and returns prescribed in these rules shall, in the case of importers referred to in sub-rule (1), be submitted by the Head Office in the State to the assessing authority of the circle in which such Head Office is located and shall include the aggregate of turnover of all the branches of his business.

Filing of returns and payment of tax by importers Sections 6.

7 (1) Every registered importer and every importer whose application for registration is pending with the assessing authority shall submit a return for every quarter in Form DT-3 in duplicate to the assessing authority of the circle so as to reach him within a month after the close of the period to which the return relates:

Provided that the assessing authority of the circle may for the reasons to be recorded in writing direct any registered importer to file monthly returns:

Provided further that no such directions shall be issued without affording an opportunity of being heard to the importer:

Provided further that every importer who discontinues his business at any time, shall submit to the assessing authority, the return for the period up to and inclusive of the date of discontinuance, within a month from the date of such discontinuance.

(2) Every importer, who submits a return under sub-rule (1) shall submit along with the return, receipt from the appropriate Government Treasury, or crossed demand draft or pay order in favour of the assessing authority for the full amount of tax due according to the return.

Assessment. Sections 6, 10 and 21.

8 (1) Where an importer has failed to file a return within ninety days of its due date, the assessing authority shall, while making assessment to the best of its judgement, presume, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, that turnover of the importer for the period under assessment has not been less than that of during the corresponding period of the previous year.

(2) If, in any case, the assessing authority assesses a figure different from that shown in the return submitted under the provisions of these rules, it shall record its reasons briefly in writing and shall furnish the assessee with a copy of such record.

(3) After making an assessment, the assessing authority shall examine whether any and if so, what amount is due from the importer after deducting any tax paid under sub rule (2). If any amount is found to be due from the assessee towards the assessment, the assessing authority shall serve upon the importer a notice in Form DT-4 and the assessee shall pay the sum demanded within the time and in the manner specified in the notice. If the tax due on the final assessment is lower than the tax already paid, it shall issue, at the option of the assessee, refund payment order in Form S.T.R. 34, prescribed under the Punjab Subsidiary Treasury Rules, or refund adjustment order in DT-5, for the amount of refund due. If the final assessment is exactly equal to the tax already paid, the assessing authority shall inform the importer what the final assessment is and that no further amount is due from him towards it:

Provided that the excess tax refundable to the assessee shall be first adjusted towards any other amount due from him under the Ordinance, and for this purpose a refund adjustment order in Form DT-5 shall be issued:

Provided further that no amount in excess of five thousand rupees shall be refunded without seeking prior approval of the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner incharge of the district who shall further seek approval of the Commissioner where the refundable amount is more than one lakh rupees.

Deductions.
Sections
2(12), 2(28)
and 5.

9(1) In calculating the turnover liable to tax for a period, an assessee may deduct from his gross turnover during that period-

- (a) the value of goods received from any place in the same local area;
- (b) the value of goods which he purchased from any person in any other local area in the State than the local area in which his place of business is situated;
- (c) the value of goods which has been delivered as such by him to any other person as a result of sale by him;
- (d) the value of goods which has been delivered as such by him outside the State subject to production of proof of dispatch and receipt of goods outside the State;

Note- Production of declarations in form F, prescribed under the provisions of the Central Sales Tax (Registration and Turnover) Rules, 1957, shall be admissible as evidence for the purposes of this clause subject to verification of the correctness, genuineness and validity of the declaration produced;

- (a) the value of goods specified in Schedule A of the Ordinance;
- (b) the value of goods returned as such to the consignor within six months of their entry into the local area; and
- (c) the value of goods left in the stock except when the business is closed or the certificate of registration issued under the Ordinance is cancelled;

Provided that the turnover deducted under this clause shall form part of the turnover for the period immediately succeeding:

Provided further that the value of plant and machinery, if forming part of the turnover, can form part of the closing stock, if capitalised.

(2) The assessing authority may ask for any relevant evidence to satisfy itself about the genuineness and correctness of the deductions claimed by the assessee.

Instalments for payment of assessed tax etc.
Section 9.

10 (1) An assessee may, in order to make payment of arrears of tax, interest or penalty by instalment, apply to the authority specified under sub-rule (2), within fifteen days from the date of service of demand notice in Form DT-4.

(2) The authorities for the purpose of sub-rule(1) shall be ---

- (a) the Commissioner in case the payment of arrears by instalment exceeds rupees five lakh or the period within which arrears are to be paid by instalments exceeds twenty four months; and
- (b) the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner, incharge of district in all other cases.

(3) The authority specified under sub-rule (2) may relax the period specified in sub-rule (1) in case where it finds that the delay in filing the application for grant of instalments, has been for reasons beyond the control of the assessee.

(4) The granting of instalments under sub-rule (2), shall be subject to the following conditions, namely-

- (a) that the importer furnishes adequate security to the satisfaction of the authority concerned for payment of arrears by instalments;
- (b) that the importer pays along with each permitted instalment interest chargeable under sub section (3) of section 9 of the Ordinance in respect of the amount of arrears outstanding up to the date of payment;
- (c) that the importer makes a declaration to the effect that no other application has been made to the authorities other than the authorities specified under sub-rule (2) for payment of arrears by instalments.

(5) The authority specified under sub-rule (2), to whom the application is made under sub-rule (1), may after making such inquiry as it deems fit, by an order in writing, subject to the conditions specified under sub-rule (4), permit an assessee to pay the arrears in such instalments and subject to such conditions, as may be specified in its order.

(6) If the importer contravenes any of the conditions specified in the order or in sub-rule (4) or commits any default in making payment in accordance with the provisions of these rules, the whole of the sum remaining unpaid on the date of such default shall become recoverable at once in lump-sum together with the interest and penalty, if any, levied in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance or the rules.

Methods of payment of money payable under the Ordinance or the rules. Section 9.

- 11(1) The tax or other miscellaneous amounts payable under the Ordinance or these rules shall be paid by the importer –
- (i) by remittance into the appropriate Government Treasury; or
 - (ii) by crossed demand draft or pay order in favour of the assessing authority; or
 - (iii) where the amount does not exceed five thousand rupees to the taxation inspector against a receipt in Form DT-6.
- (2) Every payment made under the Ordinance or under these rules into the appropriate Government Treasury or the State Bank of India or the Reserve Bank of India, shall be accompanied by a challan in Form DT-7. The challan Form may be obtained from any Government Treasury or from the office of any assessing authority.

Nature of accounts to be maintained by importers. Section 13.

- 12(1) Every registered importer and every person liable to get himself registered under the Ordinance shall keep and maintain a true and correct account of his daily transactions showing the value of goods entering into a local area.
- (2) Every such importer or person shall keep separate purchase and sale account in respect of goods.
 - (3) Every such importer or person shall keep the current books of accounts at the place or places of business entered in the registration certificate. Every receipt and dispatch of goods shall be brought to account then and there.
 - (4) Every such importer or person shall maintain day to day stock account in respect of each goods and each such variety of goods which is taxable at different rates. The stock account shall contain particulars of purchase or receipt, use or consumption, sale or dispatch and balance stock of goods. The stock-account-book shall be page-numbered and indexed, and shall, if so required by a notice issued in this behalf, be produced before the assessing authority for authentication.
 - (5) Every importer shall maintain subsidiary accounts of stock for each branch, depot or godown. Every branch shall also maintain the stock accounts in respect of its own transactions in the form adopted for this purpose by its Head Office.
 - (6) The value of goods purchased, sold or consigned for which cash memorandum, bill of sale, purchase invoice or delivery note outward or inward, as the case may be, is required to be compulsorily issued, shall be of any amount not less than one hundred rupees. However, when the person purchasing the goods of any value not exceeding one hundred rupees demands the cash memorandum or bill of sale, as the case may be, the importer shall issue to him the cash memorandum or bill of sale.

Fee for clarification. Section 12(2).

- 13. The fee payable for seeking a clarification under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 12 shall be one hundred rupees and shall be paid by way of crossed demand draft in favour of the Commissioner.

Forms, registers, etc. to be written in ink. Section 13.

- 14 (1) All entries in all forms, registers and other documents prescribed by the Ordinance or these rules shall be made in ink or may be computer printed:
- Provided* that where more than one copy of form, declaration, return, register or other documents has to be filled or written at the same time, entries may be made by a ball point pen or typewriter or a computer.
- (2) No entry in such forms, register and other documents shall be erased or overwritten. Incorrect entries shall be scored out under attestation and correct entry shall be recorded.
